

Daniel Sulcer and Hattie Sulcer, his wife, Jefferson, Maryland; David Sulcer, widower, No. 107 East Sixth Street, Frederick, Maryland; Bertha Burdette and Charles C. Burdette, her husband, near Grove's lime kiln, Frederick, Maryland; Lottie G. Wachter and George Wachter, her husband, Frederick, Maryland, and Lillie C. Sulcer, unmarried, No. 107 East Sixth Street, Frederick, Maryland, requiring them to be and appear in Your Honorable Court some day certain to be named in said Writ, to answer the premises and abide by and perform such decrees as may be passed therein.

The Bill of Complaint further asks the Court to grant to the Complainant an Order of Publication, in the usual form, giving notice to the non-resident Defendants of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint, and warning them to be and appear in this Court, either in person or by Solicitor, on some day certain to be named, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

It is thereupon this 18th day of August, 1930, by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity, ordered that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this Order to be printed in some newspaper published in Frederick County, once in each of Four successive weeks prior to the 17th day of September, 1930, give notice to the non-resident Defendants of the object and substance of this Bill of Complaint, and warning them to be and appear in this Court, either in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 3rd day of October, 1930, and show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Eli H. Hargis
Clerk of the Circuit Court for Frederick County.
